

10.3 Repeat Problem 10.2 for TV channels, each requiring a bandwidth of 6 MHz.

Solution: Number of telephone channels = $\frac{2 \times 4 \times 10^8}{6 \times 10^6} = 133.3 \simeq 133$ channels.
We need to round down because we cannot have a partial channel.
